1's, vig. winged females, with sword and scales—imitation of genuine, but poorly engraved. Notice the eyes.

1's, vig. a figure of Justice—cashier's name engraved, and retouched with a pen.

1's, let. E. vig. blacksmith shop; Cash'r and Pres't have no period—the genuine have. Of the South Bend Branch.

2's, let. B., Indianapolis branch; the figures "2" are not plain, in the genuine they are; the "r" & "w" in two join, in the genuine they do not touch. Pay H. Bates.

2's, April 4, 1841, pay H. Bates, Thos. H. Sharp, ass't cash., O. Merrill, pres. Filling up and officers names engraved; the bill coarse & dark. Indianapolis branch.

2's, let. D; A. P. Andrews, jr. cash., S. Merrill, pres. The imitation of the president's signature is good; paper thick & rough. Fulton's eyes (right end of note), much blurred.

5's, vig. two females sitting on an iron chest, like most of the genuine notes; around the vig. are coarse straight lines, easily seen—on the genuine they are very perfectly clouded.

5's, pay at the Madison branch, to H. Watts; signatures are apparently in the same hand; in the genuine note the female's dress is plain and distinct, in the counterfeit it is blurred, and without proper shade.

5's, lets. AA, vig. cradlers—heads of Washington & Lafayette on the ends—genuine have Franklin and Wayne

5's, centre vig. a ship, which none of the genuine have. The name of Merrill is engraved.

5's, let. D. vig. a woman and ship, with portraits of Washington & Lafayette rather dull, dead looking. Letter V, on left hand margin, is too narrow, and not well proportioned. They are made payable at the different branches.

5's, engr'd by W. Dane & Co.—Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, or Draper, Toppack & Co. have done the engraving of the bank.

5's, vig. a female looking to the right, her arm resting on a sheaf of wheat, plough, &c. In the genuine the vig. is the same, but the female faces the left, not the right.

5's, Jan. 1, 1839. Bank never issued bills dated Jan. 1, 1839.

10's, vig. an Indian viewing a train of cars; train of cars and lady and gentleman on the right, sheaf of grain on the left end. Paper and engraving poor. No genuine like this.

10's, let. A. vig. a naked figure sitting, a sailor, ship, &c. At the bottom is an Indian in a canoe; heads of Washington and Lafayette on the margins.

10's, vignette a view of a steamboat, ship, &c.

20's, May 1, 1839; R. Millikin, cash., S. Merrill, pres.; filled up to all the branches—well calculated to deceive.

20's, let. A. variously filled up and dated; paper lighter, note shorter, and engraving less distinct than genuine; lines of clouding around the State House are too coarse—the lathe work around the figures is not distinct.

20's & 100's, altered from 5's, clumsily done, having retained the heads of particular individuals, as all the 5's have; none of which are on the genuine $20 or $100. The upper and lower margin is cut off in making the alteration.

100's, let. A. payable ninety days. Dated Mar. 4, 1843. Well executed, and calculated to deceive.

A number of fraudulent notes are in circulation, ingeniously pieced & pasted together—hold them to the light, and the fraud may be discovered. Notes so pieced, should be refused, as the bank will not redeem them at full price.

DELAWARE BRIDGE.

It is not in our power to advise, understandingly, in relation to this Bank—we do not believe it will be resuscitated. For the present, we are paying 30 cents on the dollar. It may be better, and it may be worse.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY BANK.

We are paying 60 cents on the dollar for the notes of this bank, and there appears to be a demand for them.

Counterfeit Gold Pieces.

A quarter eagle, purporting to be of the New-Orleans mint, of 1843, after being pronounced genuine by the best judges in Wall-street, was sent to the Philadelphia mint, where it underwent all the ordinary tests, and compared with a genuine piece of the N. O. mint, under a powerful microscope, but no difference could be seen, except that the edge was slightly more rounded, which might have been occasioned by wear.—Upon being sawn in two, it proved to be only a shell of gold, over a filling of silver. The gold was worth $1.25. Half eagles, of the same character, have been discovered. Eagles are so depreciated by sweating, as to be worth but $9.

Counterfeit Treasury Notes.

The public are cautioned against spurious Treasury Notes. A $500 note, sent in this city, from Nashville, had been altered from a note engraved in New-Orleans, for the Eagle Mining Company of Indiana, having for a vignette a stooping eagle on the limb of a tree, with Washington on the left end, and the goddess of Commerce on the right.—The above description will enable any person to detect this fraud, as it differs in all the particulars from the genuine Treasury Notes.

The Reporter is published daily, (Sundays excepted,) and furnished to subscribers, weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly, as may be ordered.

A paper like the Reporter, is an indispensable assistant to every business man: to large dealers it is useful as a reference for the current rates of discount, with valuable tables (to be found from time to time on the first and last pages—always brief and comprehensive,) on banking and monetary affairs in general, with hints on the above, useful to all. To the smaller dealers, it is a great aid in judging of bills, discriminating between the spurious and genuine; and in this way, in many cases, saving ten times the price of subscription, every year.

All regular subscribers are entitled to a copy of our GOLD and SILVER COIN SHEET, containing a larger number of fac-similes of the foreign coins in circulation, than ever published in any one collection. Newspaper agents and dealers generally, can be supplied with the Reporter and coins attached, if so ordered. Address,

Extracts from the Controller's Report for 1848.

"In the cases of five banks, the right of the Controller to sell certain mortgages was called in question at the auction, and in these cases the mortgages were withdrawn from the sale and foreclosed in chancery. The first of these was a mortgage of $4,275, pledged for the notes of the Bank of America, at Buffalo.—The litigation in this case is not yet closed. Another was a mortgage of $10,000, given to secure the redemption of the notes of the Merchants Exch. Bk. of Buffalo. In the case of the Farmers Bank, of Seneca county, there were two mortgages contested. There is a mortgage of $2,500 pledged for the notes of the Bank of Brockport, also in the course of collection. The Washington Bank, of New-York, had deposited with the Controller a mortgage of $10,000 which was contested."

May not the same difficulty arise in closing up the Atlas and James' Banks?

In commenting on the 1ST CLASS OF FREE BANKS, the Controller says:

"In almost every case the notes of these Banks are secured by stocks of the state of New-York; so that the notes would be half a per cent better after the death of a bank than during its life."

We went it pretty strong for the "1st class," but this beats us a foot.
